Leonard Pagarigan posted:

My earliest memories of Roland and the Laboguens was as a next door neighbor that lived just across the street on the other side of California Ave. He was one of three classmates that lived next to me. The oddity was that I never saw him playing in the neighborhood as he must have been hard at studies to keep up with his siblings. Quiet and reserved was what I recall of Roland but in the adult years at the reunions was when the socialization as "classmates" took place. Rest In Peace Roland.
