Really loved Tony like a brother. We met in the 9th grade in high school; instantly bonded. He was the handsome, smart and cool leader of our group of close friends. We had good fun times together playing basketball, handball, working together at the Hut, eating out, watching NFL football games and cruising down Waikiki in the 80's! We made each other laugh and just chillin' talking story. I spent time with him praying and sharing about our faith in Abba Father and Jesus Christ. It hurts a lot not seeing and talking to him at our monthly get togethers. I know that he is with God. Condolences and love to the Salamat Family! Tony was a gift and blessing to us all!! Love you Tony!! Friends always, Dave 🤔👉👈❤️🙏
