Dad , I wasn't ready to see you go , but I know that you held on for the longest for your family . You fought hard and strong for us . I will miss our times together and our small moments of jokes and laughers . I will miss our bond we had for our favorite foods that we enjoyed together . Though my heart is heavy with sadness I know that you are in peace, and watching over all of us . We will forever love you and miss you . It is with deep sorrow and heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved Dad. Dad was more than just the cornerstone of our family—he was our compass, our quiet strength, and our greatest teacher. With a heart full of love and hands that were never afraid of hard work, he spent his life giving everything he had to those he cherished. His wisdom was steady, his laughter rare but warm, and his love unconditional. He lived a life rooted in integrity, kindness, and humility. Whether through his simple advice, the stories he shared, or the way he always showed up when it mattered most, Dad made an indelible mark on everyone who knew him. His values live on in us, his children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and all the lives he touched. Though we are heartbroken, we are also grateful for the years we had, the love we shared, and the memories that will forever live in our hearts. Rest in peace, Dad. Your legacy of love will guide us always.
