Gail is the best wonderful Boss i ever had. She been there for me good and bad at work. She really care for everyone at work and there family, not like some other boss out there that only care about making money for the company. You been there for me when i lost my dadGail, she always think about everyone future when they retire. She making sure we get something when we retire. Im really really appreciate everything that you teach me and advise me to do for the past years. Gail, you always be miss and in my heart. This is not a good bye. I will see you later.❤️😭😭👤 Anh

Gail was a great supporter and advocate of the cosmetology barber industry.For the 56 years of knowing Gail .. she was always there to assist and promote the beauty industries cause and purpose. She participated in legislation conventions and thru her monthly business mailings.Gail also was very concerned about the health and safety of the consumers. She kept close watch of the cosmetology and Barber Boards. She was a strong supporter of licensure.Thank you Gail for always being there for us We will miss you dearly.Gail will always be in my heartSincerely Joy BYShimabukuBoutique de Joy.
