Where do I begin? I've delayed writing here because there is so much that I want to say to Chris and his family.I first met Chris as a tenant in my ohana in Hilo. Because I lived on-site it was always important to me to rent to 'friends' not tenants. When Chris lived with us, it changed from friends to family! Chris, Diana, Jenna & I enjoyed each other's company, supported and nurtured each other in an incredibly special way. When Chris came back for a later contract he bemoaned the lack of our ohana. I challenged him to find more people at work whom he thought could belong. The second ohana he created included Steve, Rebecca and Rachel. Unfortunately, by this time I had been forced to move to California. Chris stepped up to take care of my cat Lomi and the house. I will be forever grateful for his efforts taking care of my abandoned life in Hilo.I will always remember his happy laughter at our round-table talk-stories. His enthusiastic attitude and great empathy. We were all so blessed to have known him and will always carry a piece of him in our hearts. Mahalo nui loa Chris!

I was soooo devastated and heart broken when I heard the bad news. I couldn't even believe it. I broke down crying trying to accept the truth. Truth hurts ❤️. Till this day, I still can't believe it. I miss our special memories together - our talks, our laughs, our jokes, our words of wisdom, our games, our dances, our heart warming hugs, our crazy, fun and spontaneous times together, etc. which I'll cherish FOREVER. Chris, Thank you for always being there for me, giving your unwavering unconditional love and support. I thank God for the close special bond and friendship we had. You were more than a blessing and I'm extremely grateful for having you apart of my life. I could never forget the loving, sweet, caring, kind, generous, helpful, very talented, dedicated, hardworking, outgoing, hilarious and amazing person that you were in and out. Your smile would always bring us joy. You've made a big impact on not only my life, but many others out there that know and love you. You've helped make differences and saved many peoples lives. Thank you very much for your services. You will always be missed and never be forgotten. 😭 You may not be physically here, but your spirit will live in our hearts forever. Sending my deepest condolences, love, comfort and prayers to your family and friends as we all mourn this tragic loss. Heaven has gained another sweet angel too early 😊 I pray you will RIP and RIL with our Almighty God. 🙏 Until we meet again... I MISS YOU AND I LOVE YOU BRO! 😭

We thought of you today. But that is nothing new. We thought about you yesterday. And days before that too. We think of you in silence. Now all we have are memories. And your picture in a frame. Your memory is our keepsake. With which we'll never part. God has you now in his keeping. We have you in our hearts. FAREWELL CHRIS....
