Aloha, I'm a family friend that feels like ohana. I always felt welcomed to come over to celebrate their special occasions and holidays and it was always the best. Auntie Lori would always greet me with open arms. Her daughter Windy is a good friend. I got a fee good memories but I like the lip singing night that they all had at Windys house one night and I went over to chill and watch. It was amazing. Auntie did a great job and I loved it. She showed lots of emotions and movements. It was one awesome night to remember. All her kids and grandchildren were involved too of course it was the cutest, funniest event I loved. Wish I had a photo to share but I would have to dig deep into my phone n that'll take forever for me lol. RIL Auntie Lorain...u will be truly missed by many n all!!! Love you!! ❤️
