My Auntie Pacing was one remarkable woman. A woman who always cared and loved unconditionally. She never expected anything in return, too. I remember when I first met you as Manu's girlfriend, you treated me like family. Now that I'm his wife, you still treated me the same. There were times you'd laugh at me after you told me something in Ilocano and I reminded you that I didn't understand. It was a simple phrase telling me to "eat." I knew that you always cared. You were a simple lady who appreciated things. Always know you'll remain in my heart. Keep smiling and keep praying for us. Love you always 🌸❤

My Auntie Pacing is truly one of a kind. A remarkable woman who loved unconditionally and has a big heart. She cared for others and always showed it with compassion. When I was first introduced as Manu's girlfriend- you treated me like family. Now that I'm his wife- you always treated me the same. There were times you talked to me in Ilocano and I had to remind you to talk to me in Tagalog. You would laugh and apologize, but I didn't mind. I will always be thankful for the laughter and smiles you shared. Although you are no longer here with us, you will always remain in my heart. Please keep praying and continue to smile now that you're up in heaven, too. May your soul rest in peace. Love you always!
