M ichael Cambonga Obituary

Born on the North Shore of O’ahu, in a little town called Waialua, a Superstar is born. Full of life, love and a whole lot of potential. There was nothing that he put his mind to, that wouldn’t get accomplished.

Growing up, he’s had his fair share of stories that would lead one to believe that he was rambunctious, to say the least. But that very same characteristic had molded him into the type of person that we all had known and greatly loved.

He was firm, yet fair. He loved hard, yet believed in discipline. He gave from his heart, and never expected anything back. He was loved by many, and had made such a lasting impression on everyone he had crossed paths with, just from that beautiful smile and his super infectious energy and presence.

He was an adventurous man, unafraid to try it all, and never limited himself in enjoying the life that he had lived. He loved the outdoors, hunting, raising birds, netting, deep diving and cruising with his friends. He also loved spending time with his grandchildren, taking them anywhere they would want to go, and giving them whatever they would want. There was nothing that he wouldn’t have done for them.

As the time we’ve had with him ends in this life, and as hard as it is for us all to say goodbye, we pray it’s not forever. We believe that someday we will all see each other again with our Blessed Heavenly Father, singing together in the heavenly courts; that is the blessed hope! (Romans 8:28)

We love you our beloved Husband, Dad, Papa and Brother- Michael ‘Mikey’ Cambonga.

You will sorely be missed, and there will not be a day that we won’t be thinking about you.
