I remember you teaching me to drive with the Chevy which was a standard. The gear shift was on the steering wheel column. They don't make them anymore. You told me if I could learn how to drive a standard I could drive anything! I know I scared you a bit however, you never let on. You were patient and calm even when I took another vehicle's right away and nearly got us in an accident! Thank you for a lifetime of memories and especially the music. Rest well Dad, I will miss you! Love Always, Star
