Helena Aguilar Sadaya Obituary

Helena A. Sadaya, 71, passed away peacefully on September 2, 2024. Born on November 23, 1952 in Bacolod City, Philippines, she was the beloved daughter of the late Gregorio Sadaya and Aguida P. Aguilar.

Helena was a woman whose love and nurturing spirit knew no bounds. She touched the lives of many, including raising children not her own with unwavering dedication and selflessness. She provided love, support, and guidance to everyone she encountered, leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of all who knew her.

Helena's life was a testament to faith, hope, and perseverance. Her character reflected the teachings of Romans 12:12: "Joyful in hope, patient in affliction, and faithful in prayer." Even in times of hardship, she remained strong, unwavering in her trust in God's plan.

She is survived by her siblings: Renato Sadaya, Maripil Nacionales, Wilfredo Sadaya, Rizalde Sadaya, Orlando Sadaya, Gregorio Sadaya, Jr., and Dionarissa Tabion. She was preceded in death by her brothers Wenceslao Sadaya and Oscar Sadaya.

Helena will be remembered as a loving sister, a devoted caregiver, and a steadfast woman of faith. She leaves behind a legacy of love, hope, and resilience that will continue to inspire and guide her family and all those who knew her.

May she rest in peace, embraced in the arms of the Lord she faithfully served, forever rejoicing in the presence of Jesus.

I want to share a cherished memory of Auntie Jutz/Jutay/Tita. In 2018, Auntie Jutz surprised us with a visit to Oregon (her first time ever) accompanied by Ate Jiji, Tita Bebe, Tito Jojo, and Sheena. Their unexpected arrival, late at night, turned into a funny memory, I think Ate Jiji still has it on her video. While in Oregon, we had a great time exploring Silverton Falls and strolled through Portland's beautiful Rose Garden. We also experienced Seattle's iconic Space Needle, Public Market, and riding the monorail in Washington. What I treasure most, however, was witnessing Auntie Jutz's pure joy and excitement. Her laughter, her smile, and her happiness will be in my memory forever. Before leaving to Hawaii, she gifted me her cozy sweater that has Hawaii and Hibiscus on it. She wore it during her visit which I still have to this day. It reminds me of her thoughtfulness and love. Auntie Jutz's visit was more than just a trip; it was a celebration of life, love, and family. She showed us that even in brief moments, we can create lifelong memories. As we say goodbye, I hold onto these precious moments, and I know that her love will continue to warm our hearts. Rest in peace, Auntie Jutz. Your memory will be our blessing. We love you so much! -The Maghinay family: Mark, Shiera (Che-Che), Sophia, Ian and Flor Dizon
