Dear Rene, Todd and Jason, and Scott and Mika, please accept our condolences. We look forward to celebrating Uncle Sabo's long life. He, my Dad, and their entire family experienced a happy and rich but challenging childhood as kids in Wailuku during the Great Depression and WWII. He and Dad were especially close, being the two youngest. They shared many adventures and friends from the neighborhood. Then they grew up to accomplish so much and enjoy a lifestyle that that they could not have imagined as children. No matter the circumstances, they always worked hard, dealt with the challenges, and put their families first, for which we will be forever grateful.
