Shirley Y. Kinoshita posted:

So surprised to hear you are gone...Auntie Dot, you brought a smile and a laugh to all who knew you. And, you loved going to "Vegas!" to have fun and win big--although I never knew if you did. It was just the thrill and excitement of being there and playing the "one-armed bandits! Years ago, I once saw you wandering around one of the downtown casinos by yourself and called out to you--when you laughed and said you were there with family but was just looking around for some excitement, you were getting bored! I'll always remember and love you, Auntie Dot--I hope to see you again!
