Aunty to me and cousin to my mom Elsie, she and mom celebrate birthday 2 days apart. You were so energetic, never could be idle. Working with your hands and blessed to be seen in the house of the Lord. She would come with uncle Harry, then with her daughter cousin Lulu until she was walking or catching a ride to Lamb of God Makaha with her other daughter Lucy. What I can remember of her laughter with gma Lovainna to cousin loud cracking up. ðŸð€ Also she loved to make those Hawaiian goodies kukui inamona which she wanted to do for my sonâ€™s grad party, making limu , dried squid, and her flower growing so huge. Waianae high school had a good custodian. Nty I thank God for my last time with you. Jesus welcomed you home. I know they all met you at that pearly gates. A hui hou be ready when we all get to heaven what a day of rejoicing that will be. To see Jesus and you again. ðŸ™ðŸ¼â€¸ðŸœâ€¸ðŸ¥ðŸ~ðŸ•ðŸ•ðŸ•ðŸ• to the ohana.

My greatest joy with this woman of excellence was my time with her and Lulu sharing the word of God , encouraging one another. Her love for her family was vegetarian first priority, wanting them to live a life for Jesus. She was so funny in her own simple way. Mom Oponui you will be missed by,all who knew you loved you. Grateful for the example you set Grandma. No doubt in my mind I am who I am because of your hard work ethic and lead by example mentality. You sacrificed so much to help others. I love you. I always have. I hope I make you proud. A Hui Hou Grandma.
