Jayzen Ciufu lit a candle in honor of Jason.

Btw this is Jayzen and I wanted my father to know is that I thank him for getting us out of CPS so fast, he took care of us so much and i miss him for that. I knew I wasn't showing attention to him but I really love him for taking care of me and my sisters. I hope that I get to see him again and wish that he's still with us till this day.

Rest in peace dad, love you and wish that the family can see you again. Fly high in the sky's with the Lord while looking down at us.

I had the honor of meeting Jason and getting to know him on a personal level which blossomed into a beautiful connection. We truly wanted the best for one another. We enjoyed our time together trying new things, doing bike rides, eating at different places, spending time with our kids, spending time at home, tinkering in his garage, having meaningful conversations, and most of all supporting one another in everything we did, whether separate or together. He was a kind man, loving father, and an old soul. He was knowledgeable in many areas. I loved listening to his advice, his thoughts, and dreams of the future he had planned for his family. He was an amazing man that loved God and his family. I would be proud to have had him by my side. I not only came to love him, but had the utmost respect for him. I am sorry for his family's great loss and will pray for them always. Love you forever Jay.

You will be missed Dad. I love you a lot. I know God has better plans for you up in Heaven. I am grateful to have been your son. I know I haven't said it a lot, but I love you very much Dad. I hope to make you proud one day. You were such a great father to all of us and did the best you could. We will all remember the good and fun times that we shared together. You will never be forgotten. Rest in Peace.
