Dear Caroline and Family I am so sorry to read of your daughter Shalom's passing! I was browsing through my Facebook and came across this article about Shaloms passing! I recall at the time my husband passed i sw you at the mortuary that you had mentioned that she passed.. and I just happened to browse through some obituaries and read the article on SHALOM !My heart aches terribly whenever I read about the demof our family, friends, acquaintances and people we knew ! Hearing of their passing is a very sad emotional experience for! Just to know that they no longer exist in this realm and there is always a feeling of sadness and pain I experience when I first know of their demise! truly feel a deep sadness and feeling of loss knowing I will never be able to see or interact with them again! May GOD BLESS THEIR SOULS OF OUR DEAREST DEPARTED AND GUIDE THEM TO HEAVEN. AMEN.

Shalom was the first person to make me feel apart of the community in Hawaii. She always recognized me in Safeway and would often comment curiously about what I was using my ingredients to make, followed up with a "oh that looks so good! Bring photos of the outcome when you come back in!" She also didn't take any negativity from anyone and would gladly stand up for both coworkers and customers. She was loving and inclusive, and a strong mama bear even to total strangers she "adopted" like me. Thank you for helping me open up, and feel like someone was always watching my back. I hope you knew how important you were to me, and how much you helped me come out of my shyness. You will always be loved.
