Albert Leyendecker, a cherished husband, father, stepfather, grandfather, brother, and friend, passed away January 11th, 2024, on the beautiful island of Oahu, HI. Born on August 28, 1971, in Taylor, Texas, Albert's journey through life was marked by his intelligence, thoughtfulness, and loving nature.

His life was enriched by the love and companionship of his devoted wife, Florence Harding, and their daughter, Trinity Taylor Dancel Leyendecker. He was a proud stepfather to Jonathon (and wife Diene) Harding and Nicholas (and wife Alexandria) Harding. His legacy continues through his cherished grandchildren, Gabriel, Gavin, Jahziah, Nainoa, Anela, Austen, Aliana, Nakoa, and Taytum, all of whom he adored.

Albert was the beloved son of Leonard Lozano Leyendecker and Olga Leyendecker. Albert's journey in life was one marked by dedication and service. He honorably served in the United States Navy for 10 years, a period that instilled in him a profound sense of discipline and commitment. Following his military career, Albert's entrepreneurial spirit led him to become a respected business owner in the Food Industry, where his intelligence and thoughtfulness greatly contributed to his success and the well-being of his clients and employees. He worked alongside his hard-working wife, creating Lola's Local Grindz.

Outside of work, Albert's zest for life was evident in his varied interests. He was a fun-loving individual who thrived on the joy of spending quality time with his family. Whether it was watching movies, going fishing, or engaging in playful games, he was always at the center of creating memorable experiences for those he loved.
