I first met Lydia in 1995, she became my boss at DPW. She quickly became a friend. One of the kindest and caring people I had ever met. Always willing to listen, help and to share knowledge. I don't know when it happened. Somewhere, we became family. Her heart was as big as the sky. I never had a sister, she became that. She had that big, beautiful smile that just lite up the room. I will miss her Christmas Cards and her. We know she is with the LORD, and we will see here again. To the family, you have lost a Mother, Sister and Aunt you are in our prayers.
