A quiet man of few words; loving husband, father, grandad and great grandad. He was very sports oriented; volleyball, tennis, golfing and rooting for his 49ers no matter what. You know he'll be cheering them on this super bowl Sunday. One would also see him tending to his yard especially his orchid and rose plants or just pulling weeds. He will be remembered by students also during his volleyball coaching days and the impact he had on their lives. RIP Neil.
