Yvonne Pi'ilani (Daniels) Cox Obituary

In Loving Memory of Yvonne Pi'ilani (Daniels) Cox (July 23, 1954 – January 9, 2024)

Yvonne Pi'ilani Daniels, born on July 23, 1954, to David Samson Daniels, Sr. and Audrey Roselani Kekahuna in Wailuku, Maui, embraced a life of purpose and dedication. She grew up in Kula, Maui and attended Kealahou School and later, Kula Elementary School.

In 7th grade, she continued her educational journey at Kamehameha Schools as a boarder. Upon graduating in 1972, she pursued a career in nursing, graduating from Kapi'olani Community College as an L.P.N. For an admirable 50 years, she devoted herself to her craft, working seamlessly under the practices of Dr. Daniel Palmer and later, Dr. Stella Matsuda.

In 1978, Yvonne married George Mehewaole Cox III, and their union blessed them with three children: Pomaialoha, Keoki, and Lihau. Celebrating 45 years of marriage this past year, their love was a testament to commitment and enduring partnership.

Yvonne faced the challenge of brain cancer in 2018, displaying unparalleled bravery through her remission and subsequent return of the illness in September 2023. Undeterred, she underwent treatment with resilience and grace.

At the age of 69, she received her wings from Ke Akua.

Preceded in death by her parents, David and Audrey Daniels, her uncle and aunt, Peruvia "Blue" and Liliana Medeiros, and her brother, David S. Daniels Jr.. Yvonne is survived by her loving husband, George M. Cox III; daughters Pomaialoha Apana and Lihau (Kekoa) Peltier; son George "Keoki" (Bryn) Cox IV; and cherished grandchildren: Skaizen, Skailacy, Kamaka'ala, Skailey-Rose, Skaimana, Swayde, and Denim. She is also survived by her sisters: Haunani (David) Valente, Ione (David) Nobriga, and sister-in-law, Jovena Daniels.

Cousins Forever Friends. We would laugh at the thought of our moms who were sisters were pregnant at the same time. We talked about spending our 70th birthday together We last spoke through txt on Thanksgiving morning 2023. I asked what she was doing up so early and she said she's up early everyday getting her work done than she can relax the rest of the day. We were planning to get together for lunch when I returned from my trip. Sad to say she passed before I got home. A piece of my heart is gone. I will hold close to my heart a lifetime of memories that she has blessed me with. Farewell for now dear cousin, dear friend. 🙏,

My aunty Yvonne was the one that said what was on her mind when it came to me. I will honor everything that she taught me and always made my step son David and step daughter Kaitlyn feel part of the Cox ohana at every family function. You will be greatly missed in my family's heart and I know you're in a better place now. 🙏Loved by many; Hated by few; Respect by ALL
