Love you so much Tito Jeff, I will always miss you! - Caitlin - Soon after you left, I looked into the empty sky and saw a large shooting star. I knew it was you reminding me that you are now another beautiful addition to the night sky. Eventually, time will lift all of us up into the great beyond, so that we may all shine together. - Lauren

I want to say thank you to my dad for providing support, putting a roof over my head, and also for being a kind man, which I know because he touched everyone's heart and even my friends. Also, two of my favorite memories are when he comes to school early from work and it makes me feel so happy to see him. I will never forget when he came to the winter assembly, and he even cried when I did a Bollywood dance in school. It's so hard to live without you because you've always been there for me and our family. Now that you're gone, I will promise you that I will do my best to continue being strong for our family, and dad will continue to guide us and watch us in heaven. Once again, thank you, dad, for the best!! 10 years of my life. I will miss you, and we shall see each other again. I love you so much, dad! -Your daughter, Jhealyn

Jeff left us too early. At the young age of 37, his light has dimmed, and our family feels the ache of his absence deeply. Our thoughts and prayers are with Tita Vangie, his wife and their two young children, Ate Jen, and Kuya Von and their families. who must now navigate this world without their loving father, son, brother, husband. Jeff was more than just a cousin; he was a peacemaker, a source of laughter, and a kind soul who had a knack for bringing people together. He had a way of making everyone feel like they belonged, of diffusing tense situations with a witty joke or a warm smile. His kindness extended far beyond family, touching the lives of everyone he met. As a husband and father, his love was boundless. He cherished his family and built a life filled with laughter, adventures, and unwavering support. His absence leaves a void that can never be filled, but the memories he leaves behind will remain etched in our hearts forever. Though Jeff's life was cut short, the impact he made is undeniable. He taught us the value of kindness, the importance of family, and the power of laughter. Let us carry those lessons with us, honoring his memory by living with the same warmth, compassion, and zest for life that he embodied. May his spirit live on in the hearts of all who loved him, and may his children find comfort in the knowledge that their father was, and always will be, deeply loved. - Zoilo C. Hernandez (Cousin)

I have a heavy heart while writing you this message. No single word can summarize the memories we've created since we were young. As your protective brother, I stood by your side, ensuring you were never bullied. Despite this, you remain the most affectionate person I know and love to hug everyone. I will truly miss you for that. I will always be here to protect your legacy. I love you, Jeff! - Mark
