I love and miss you daddy! Continue to watch over us all, especially mom. I think of you everyday and can't believe your gone. I know your in a better place dancing up there and being with your parents, cousins, nieces, nephews and your long time friends. Me ke aloha Pumehana love you always! See you when I see you. Daddy, although you're not here physically, I won't hear you grumble, hug or kiss your forehead I'll just close my eyes and imagine You're unseen presence is what lies ahead. The night before you left us You were asleep as no words were spoken A fighter is what you showed us From the beginning to the end, I gave you a gentle kiss on your forehead, but I didn't realize heavens gates' stood open You're so much more to me than just my father, You're my hero, my warrior, my kids' grandfather Reflections of that morning Before dawn you slipped away Watching you suffer replays daily As I'll never ever forget that day. I cannot begin to tell you What that has meant to me The painful process of letting you go Created a hole in our family tree Miss your grumbles, wit and voice I'll never hear you say, "I love you "The things we take for granted, your health, your love The illness got to that too. I don't wallow much in sorrow You wouldn't have wanted that from me Your wish to remain the strong onels the one you said I would be And though these days have been difficult, I still want to call on you dad Your swift, untimely departure Makes me reflect on what I had! Love you always daddy! Fly high and watch over Mom! Love your daughter, Leilani Keliikipi
