Carl Carney posted:

My sincere condolences to the family of Marilyn. I've known her for years and it has been a pleasure! I Marilyn was a good person, She cared deeply for her family and most of all her love for the Lord . I will always cherish the many moments and conversations we had, and time I got to spend with the family. She was a sister and friend and will never be forgotten. R.I.P. for heaven has gained an angel.
