Beatrice Emperado Obituary

Beatrice M. Emperado, a beacon of unwavering passion and selfless devotion, graced this world with her presence on March 3, 1930, in the lush surroundings of Honolulu, HI. It is with a blend of sorrow for our loss and celebration of her life that we announce her peaceful passing on September 25, 2023, in the same beautiful city where she first drew breath.

Beatrice's life journey of 93 years was marked by an enduring spirit of giving and a deep-seated love for her family, faith, and community. Born into the gentle breezes and radiant sunshine of Honolulu, Beatrice's life was as vibrant and nurturing as the island itself. She carried the spirit of 'ohana in her heart, extending her kindness and warmth to everyone she met. Her dedication to her family was the cornerstone of her existence, with her children, Dove, Alvin, and Arthur, standing as testaments to her boundless love and tireless efforts as a homemaker. The legacy of her nurturing soul is carried on through her cherished grandchildren, Gwen, Jennifer, Maria, Michael, and Nalu, each a shimmering wave in the vast ocean of her influence.

Beatrice's siblings, Elaine and Stephen, shared in the tapestry of her life, woven with threads of shared memories and an unbreakable familial bond. Together, they celebrated life's milestones and supported each other through its trials, always strengthened by Beatrice's resilient spirit.

Professionally, Beatrice contributed her diligent work ethic to the Dole Pineapple Cannery, where she was not only a valued employee but a friend and mentor to many. Beyond her work and family life, Beatrice was a devout servant of her faith. Her passion for studying the scriptures was matched only by her commitment to her church community, where she was a source of inspiration and guidance. Her sewing skills were another avenue through which she expressed her creativity and care. Beatrice's life was a living embodiment of the words of American poet Maya Angelou, "I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel." Indeed, those who had the privilege of knowing Beatrice will carry the warmth of her presence in their hearts forever. Her remarkable journey was characterized by her passion for life, the selflessness with which she approached every day, and the thoughtful attention she paid to the needs of others.

Beatrice's life story is a testament to the power of love and the impact one individual can have on the world around them. As we bid farewell to Beatrice M. Emperado, we are reminded that her spirit remains a guiding light, urging us to live with purpose, to cherish each moment, and to serve others with a generous heart. Let us honor her memory by embodying the qualities she exemplified so beautifully—passion, selflessness, and thoughtfulness—in our own lives. Beatrice's legacy is not one of mere words, but of meaningful actions and profound connections that will continue to ripple through the lives of those she touched for generations to come.
