Jarrel Nakamura Obituary

On October 26, 2023, Jarrel H. Nakamura, loving husband, father, grandfather, and known to all as Jed, passed away at the age of 71.

Born on January 9, 1952 in Honolulu, Jed was predeceased by his father Thomas Nakamura, mother Marilyn Ono (Harold-deceased), eldest brother Harris (Nona-deceased), and younger brother Ronald.

Jed was a proud graduate of Punahou School, Class of 1970 and an alumni of the University of Hawaii at Manoa where he earned a degree in Business. He was an active member of Sigma Lambda Fraternity and his humor and wit would earn him numerous master of ceremony roles over the years.

Jed had a passion for the Aiea baseball community which he supported for over 30 years, as a parent, coach, and board member.

Jed retired from the family business, Alii Flooring, as Corporate Secretary after 34 years. Retiring meant traveling and enjoying his precious grandchildren. He traveled to Japan, Okinawa, and spent time with his newest grandson Nixon in Texas. He enjoyed treating grandson Kase and granddaughter Sophie to sushi at Genki Sushi.

Jed is survived by his wife Sharon Taira Nakamura; sons Kiley (Haruka), Reid (Annie), and Jay (Jessica), grandchildren Kase, Sophie, Nixon, Siblings Carolyn Miyasaki (Arnold), Ruth Reola (Alex), step siblings Jerilyn Hall, Berlyn Kaneshiro (Neil); many nieces, nephews, and relatives.

Our family would like to express our appreciation to the doctors, nurses, and staff of Pearlridge Dialysis, Pali Momi Medical Center, Straub Clinic & Hospital, and The Villas @ St. Francis.
