Karen Gonsalves posted:

Tommy was my youngest brother. He was known for his Fishing Skills. It was his Hobby. He was an Amazing Diver on the Maili Coastline. Lobsters, Aweoweos were his weekly catch and Octopus also was brought home in quantity. He also was an avid surfer on the Maili Coastline. He had a green thumb that many envied. His parents home as well as his own home flourished with many varieties of local flowers and plants. He will be missed in this small community on the Waianae coast.
