Our beautiful Auntie Ling. We've shared so many special moments together starting with Little Egypt days way before my son was born. I'll never forget you and I (a bit intoxicated) playing the piano (like we really knew how. lol!) at big mama's party. We had so much fun that night. The many parties and Karaoke's at moon glow and then my sister moved to Hawaii and you took care of her son Jacob. Then I had a son and you took care of him while we worked. You opened your home to us and your poor daughters had to share their rooms with us. But we were family. At least that's how we felt. I remember Rory's 1st big birthday you put on at your house. All the food, pinnae and all our friends. I can't recall everything but YOU were the most giving loving special person in our lives and there isn't enough thank you's we could ever say to let you know how truly grateful we are for you Aloha auntie, from the bottom of our hearts. We love you so so much. ãÿ, See you in heaven ðŸ~†

Dearest auntie Angie , you'll be dearly missed your smile your distinct laughed and voice I will never forget. You were always welcoming me to your home with a warm, sincere greeting and thank you so much for your daughter, Sherry, my dearest and best friend I could ever have. I know you will be together with my mom along with the other angels, singing and dancing until we meet again may you rest in peaceãÿ, Love Melissa

Dearest auntie Angie , you will be dearly missed, but most definitely. I will remember your beautiful smile your distinct voice and laughter . I still have memories of you being so warm, and always inviting to your home without you I would not have met my dearest and closest friend Sherry who always brought laughter whenever I was with her. I know that you will be among my mom and the other angels and dancing until we meet again, may you rest in peaceLove, Melissa
