To Uncle Ray, Susie, John, Michael and Diane, I send my heart felt sympathies to you all at the passing of Auntie Jane. She was such a kind, sweet woman. I always loved reading her Christmas news letters filling us in on all of your lives. I spoke with her a few years back when my dad was ill and again when he passed. I also remember how kind and caring she was when my mom passed so many years ago. Rest in Peace Auntie Jane. Love, Sheryl

To all Jane's Family and Friends My heart broke at the news of my beautiful sister-in-law's passing. She was like a sister to me and I loved her dearly. My deepest condolences to you all. May the memories of your time spent together help you in your time of sorrow. Although we lived so far apart we continued our relationship by our long phone conversations. We have lost our sweet Janie but Heaven has received another angel. May your new life continue to guide us until we meet again.

Jane was my mom's 1st cousin. I remember many times on South 15th St. With all the McNallys and McAseys. Whenever Ray and Jane came to town, we would always get together. Generally they came home for Ray to sing at Mo. Western with his Barber Shop Quartet. What fun times. Great family and great memories. May God's Peace rest in your hearts. Slainte
