Kono was a true friend someone who had so much love to give and always a laugh to share. So many great times at work together making those long days go by a little faster. Nothing but love and aloha for everyone Weâ€™ll all cherish all the memories together Never needed to worry if you were around always had our back. So happy you got to be apart of our special effects ohana, truly the best person to work with.Love you always Kono

Rest in love Kono surrounded by our kupuna .I know this for sure, I am never ever ever gonna meet a Hawaiian like you . I will remember your contagious laughter and your love for our ohana and all that is hawaiiana...the music, the culture and the food . Mahalo for researching our familys genealogy back to the kingdom of Hawai'i and uncovering documents and transcripts that lead us to our great grandmother. You did that Kono! Unforgettable task and unforgettable man. I will miss you my cousin, Aloha o'e. KONO . I love you my kolohe cousin . We will meet again . Love you. Anne Marie

To the hawaiian superman who chuckled and laughed more than he flexed his muscles..I will miss you . Kono the kolohe prankster, my younger cousin . Mahalo for tracing our genealogy back to the kingdom of Hawai'i and finding our great great grandmother's name. Your love for our ohana and for all that is Hawaiiana will always be your legacy through your keiki and to all you knew of you. This I know for sure, I am never ever gonna find another hawaiian like you . Rest in love surrounded by our kupuna . Aloha o'e, until we meet again . Your cousin, Anne Marie
