My dad he was a Quiet man over thinker and just takes his time to give us answers like if I ask him today about something he will think about sometimes he gets back after a couple of months lol I forgot I asked him. He was my support my advisor and my best friend. He always told jokes and it goes in his mind laughs then try to tell us again. But he laughed made me laugh too he was knowledgeable even if he didn't go to school he graduated mechanic degree lol he was jack of all trades knew so much tried teaching me but I didn't pay attention wish I did..he would name what he thought my kids would be when they grew up well some that he guessed came true or he make trouble calling out other half the wrong name. He was testing us to see if we would react we only laugh at him . He was patient in all the things that would arise if I got mad at him he would laugh at me and make comments till I laugh .my dad miss him sooooo much. 😊❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
