Lamberto Galman Obituary Chief Petty Officer Lamberto “Brett” Galman, USCG (ret)

April 16, 1934 – November 25, 2022 (age 88)

Lamberto “Brett” Galman, 88, of Mililani, Hawaii, passed away Friday, November 25, 2022 at Heritage Crossing Hospice and Palliative Care Center (Clovis, CA) with his family at his side. He was born in 1934 in Paombong, Bulacan, Philippines. He retired from the U.S. Coast Guard in 1995 after 31 years of faithful service to our country.

He is survived by his wife, Salve-Regina Galman (52 years of marriage); children, Maria (Kevin) Corderman and Glenn Galman; granddaughter Brook Leilani Corderman; and numerous nieces, nephews, grandnieces, and grandnephews.

Memorial Services will be held on Wednesday, January 18, 2023 at Mililani Memorial Park & Mortuary - Makai Chapel. Visitation begins at 4:30 pm. Celebration of life services will start at 5:30 pm. Private interment services will take place at the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific (Punchbowl).

At the family's request, please no flowers or memorial tree (plant a tree).

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to: Coast Guard Mutual Assistance at <https://www.cgmahq.org>

To send flowers
to the family, please visit our floral store.
