Bienvenido Galario Obituary

Bienvenido "Benny" Bolosan Galario, 83, of Waipahu, Hawaii passed away peacefully at home on the 29th of July, 2022. He was born on the 25th of August, 1938 in Cadaratan, Bacarra, Ilocos Norte, Philippines to Faustino and Amparo Galario. He arrived in Honolulu on November 14, 1969 and remained in Hawaii until his death. He was employed by Damon Estates as a groundskeeper for Moanalua Gardens and also owned a successful yard maintenance business until retirement.

Bienvenido is survived by His wife, the former Amelia Dadulla, his children, Anelene (Troy) Trimmer, Mante (Calee) Galario, Nathan Galario, Aileen (John) Chin and 7 grandchildren. He is also survived by his brothers Erlindo, Avelino, Felix, sisters Pacita, Anita, Armelina and many nephews and nieces.

Bienvenido was preceded in death by his younger brother Jose.

He was an active member of the Filipino Assemblies of the First Born at Full Gospel Temple and served as a deacon and sunday school teacher for many years. He was passionate about helping establish churches in the Philippines, especially in Ilocos Norte and supporting the pastors and ministry workers there.

We will celebrate Bienvenido's life at the Mililani Memorial Park at the Mauka Chapel.
