June, my elementary school classmate. I just found out about you leaving this earth to live in eternity. Although we didn't talk much, over the years, I enjoyed sharing life's journeys and our last visit to Las Vegas. Your posts and comments will be missed dearly. Aloha my dear friend, until we meet again.

My Gemini sister June. So many great memories we share and was looking forward to your visit in Florida. I know you would've come despite the fear of crocs. Now your new home is filled with peace and pray it's a happy place for you. At least your Father is there to comfort you/his baby girl. We love you and will miss you always Mike and Denise Swam
