It was a privilege and an honor to have known Ann for over 57 years and to have her as an extended family member through the marriage of her mother to my Uncle Lee Butler. I will always cherish the great visits my deceased wife and had with her during the many trips we made out to Honolulu from 2002-2015 and during the trips she made here in Florida. I will miss her very much. May she rest in eternal peace with our Lord.
