Barbara Gleeson Obituary

B My beloved wife, Barbara Jeanne Gleeson, passed away on October 16, 2021.

November 1, 2021 would have been our 75th wedding anniversary. Our marriage was a huge success in every way. Our love for each other grew daily since the night we met on a blind date. Barbara was not only my wife, she was my business partner in our successful businesses. Barbara was born in Santa Ana, California on September 25, 1928. She gave birth to our three daughters, Colleen, Cathleen and Maureen before she turned 21. Our daughters gave us 6 grandchildren and they gave us 11 great grandchildren.

Barbara attended the University of Hawaii, majoring in art. While in college she won several art competitions. One of my wife's greatest joys was volunteering at Jefferson Elementary School for 20 years.

Our faith in Christ was evidenced by our support for many Christian organizations, both physically and financially.

I miss her every day !!!!

I remember Barbara always being dropped off at the curbside outside of my office at Jefferson Elementary School for many years. She would always come into the office with a beautiful smile. Talk story for a little bit before volunteering. We loved having her there and the students as well. I always wondered about why she stopped coming. She will always be remembered. Thank you for being there for the students. We will miss you ðŹ™ðŹ»âœŒ,
