The last time I seen you was in 2001 and the lost contact . I reconnected with you on the phone in 2019 to let you know that my dad passed away and we was supposed to meet up for lunch and COVID hit and we never got a chance to see each other . I loved it when I asked you if you remembered me and you said yes and that you still had my pictures of me . I will always treasure the memories I had of you when I would go with my dad on the weekends at the hog farm. RIL my one and only godfather . Love always Ashlynn Lopes Tehero
