Danilo Pascua Obituary

Danilo (Danny) Pascua, 74, from Honolulu, Hawaii, passed away on July 15, 2021. He was born on May 2, 1947 in Pangasinan, P.I. and raised in Palama, Hawaii. Danny attended Likelike, Kalakaua and was a proud 1965 graduate of Farrington H.S.

After high school, Danny relocated to Los Angeles, CA to further his education. He worked for Oroweat as a computer operator and taught Data Processing at the local community college. Homesick, he returned to Hawaii and worked as the produce manager at Huckleberry Farms, Don Quijote and Times Kahala. Danny loved music and was a drummer in several bands. He was an avid golfer and karaoke crooner.

Survived by siblings; Abby (Rudy) Carlos, Tony (Jan) Pascua, Pete (Sharon) Pascua, Rosie (Chris) Lariosa and Naomi (Dennis) Okimoto (both predeceased). Daughters Cheryl (Nick) Speciale, Danielle "Lani" (Mike) Honma, Ericka (Jerry) Teglash; sons Cody & Kai (predeceased); 6 grandchildren, 1 great grandchild; numerous nephews and nieces.

Due to COVID restrictions, memorial services will be announced at a later date. Please leave memories or messages for family on the tribute wall.

I have fond memories of Uncle Danny. He had a pretty good midrange jump shot, introduced to me the likes of George Benson, Earl Klugh, Jonathan Butler, et al., very witty, smart, and a trailblazer. He was always about ohana.
