I just heard from my son today about Kaeo. I'm so sorry. My son said there was a girl named Keala who worked with him and then I thought of your family. Dear gracious and Heavenly Father-Please look down upon this family and of all those who knew and loved Kaeo. Let it be known that his memories will be everlasting and dear to everyone's heart. For all the smiles and laughter and just plain goodness that he brought to everyone during his time here on earth shall be cherished. We thank you Father for watching over him and keeping him close to you. We have no worries now and know he is in good hands. Amen. One memory I wanted to share is when we used to go camping. Kaeo and Julian were born around the same time. I will never forget the fun we had. I love you both.
