F rank Dunston, Jr. Obituary

FRANK JOSEPH DUNSTON, JR., "Jr. Boy", age 50, of Mililani, Hawaii, passed away on September 26, 2020 at home after courageously battling his second bout of cancer. He was born in Honolulu, Hawaii. After graduating from Mililani High School and technical school, he worked as a Marine Diesel Mechanic.

One of Frank's greatest passion was his love for football. Through his playing Pop Warner and high school football, he was able to keep his life-long friendships with his football brothers and childhood friends.

Our sincere appreciation to the doctors at Queen's Medical Center: Drs. Singh, Hoshide, Acoba, Dane, Liu, and Ariyoshi. Also, to all the nurses, pain and palliative care nurse Beth Freitas, social worker Irene Wong, case managers, therapists, financial staff and all others inadvertently missed mentioning. Thank you, also, to St. Francis Hospice.

He is survived by mother, Charlene Harada, stepfather Bruce Harada, sister Darcia Dunston, nephew Dehrian Correa, grandfather Akira Murata, grandmother Miriam Harada, and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins. He was predeceased by his father, Frank J. Dunston, Sr. Private service held.

My beloved Jr. Boy. The day you were born, I became an Aunty. The Dunston's were all so happy as you started the next generation of the Dunston's. I remember your favorite blanket you carried every where with you. Your mom cut a really small piece for you to have when you went to kindergarten. The awesome time we spent tubing, swimming, and fishing in the Smokey Mountains of Tennessee your grandpa's birth place. Then the 2 weeks we all spent together in Disney World. Of course, there were the times we gathered for holidays and just to be together. I will always miss your beautiful smiles and that so happy laugh. I know that Grandpa Dunston greeted you the day you were born in heaven. No more pain, just glorious blessings. I miss you, but keep close in my heart. We shall meet again, until then always know you are so loved. Grandma Darlene Dunston

Frank helped me move into my house in Mililani Mauka in 2008 when he worked for labor ready. He was the first person to eat at new dining table. We reconnected by talking about our high school days, the people we knew and about football. We also ate many Korean plates together. Frank once said that the best years of his life were during high school, and that he wished he could go back. He was a good quarterback. We did not win that many games when he played, but he wore his football jersey with pride. Frank was only one year older than me. He was another good friend gone much too soon
