S amuel Nolasco Obituary SAMUEL "Sammy" PEPITO NOLASCO

67, from Mililani, passed away peacefully on August 6, 2020 at Pali Momi Hospital.

He is survived by his loving wife of 47 years, Gwendolyn Ibrao Nolasco, his loving daughter, Shanna Nolasco-Barnes (Jimmy), Son, Brandan Ibrao Nolasco (Katie), loving grandchildren;

James E. Barnes IV (Alanna), Shelby Barnes, Kyana Rowland, Keanu Rowland-Nolasco, Kolby Rowland-Nolasco, Kaeden Nolasco, Kaine Nolasco, Keaula Hett, and Moani Briley.

As well as his loving brothers; Nemesio Nolasco, Jr. (Rosie), David Nolasco (Francie), Elmer Nolasco (Liz), Gilbert Nolasco, Ronnie Nolasco, and his beloved aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, Nemesio, Sr. and Adeline, and his grandson, Kekia'i Hett.

Samuel was born in Laoag City, Philippines on July 26, 1953. The family arrived in Hawaii in 1963. He attended Helemano Elementary, and graduated from Leilehua High School in 1973. He worked for United Parcel Service (UPS) from 1976 to 2010. He was always proud to say that he was one of the first drivers to start with UPS when the company started on the island. Sammy's second family was the UPS "guys" whom he worked with, and truly LOVED. He was a man of very little words, but his actions would speak for him.

After retirement he enjoyed going to Vegas, caring for his grandchildren-taking them to and from school, and spending time with his family.

The Celebration of Life will be celebrated at a later date
