Leocadia Heleloa Obituary

LEOCADIA "KANDI" HELELOA, 75 of Kaneohe, Hawaii, passed away on June 26, 2020 in Kaneohe. She was born in Honolulu, Hawaii.

She is survived by brothers, Lorrin and Ladd Heleloa .

Services will be held at a later date.

If I should go tomorrow

It would never be goodbye,

For I have left my heart with you,

So don't you ever cry.

The love that's deep within me,

Shall reach you from the stars,

You'll feel it from the heavens,

And it will heal the scars."

Love you all, Kandi

Just checking in my BBFF, I continue to miss you every day. I always go through our memories...I cry and/or laugh. You are truly missed. I play your Lord's Prayer in Hawaiian during my evening prayer with you. Your melodious voice reciting prayer brings tears. Know that I miss you and love you very much. I'll never find another BBFF, you're IT ðŸ˜•ðŸ˜~

"Many people walk in and out of your life, but true friends leave a foot print in your heart." Kandi, your footprints touched many lives, mine included. It was an honor to call you friend. I will never forget your kindness, warm smile, wit, or wisdom. Our conversations always filled with laughter as we discussed breaking news of the day; Food, Korean dramas, UH Wahine volleyball, Amazon shopping, hula and of course "Ohana" When we discovered we both attended St. Augustine School, we became "Forever Friends!" I'll miss saying to you, "Remember, SAS girls are tough!" or "Hwaiting, Kan!" Korean, meaning "You can do it, be strong!" To Lehua and the Heleloa Ohana, Kandi may be gone but never forgotten. She created a lifetime of memories to comfort you in the days and years to come, her love, will remain forever in your hearts. I love and miss you my friend. I know you are up in Heaven in a reserved section watching over all of us with a shiny halo on your head and a big smile. Mahalo, for the memories. A hui hou.....Dar A A A
