Sweet smile,

Soft hands,

Kind soul,

Pure heart.

Can't wait

to meet again.

Gentle as the morning dew,

Glistening the petals of your pink rose,

Glowing, like an angel, you smiled,

To Heaven and Father God, you rose...

Our Beautiful, Sweet, Precious Mommy,

Though you are in your heavenly home,

You are still helping us, guiding us, teaching us,

With the wonderful life that you've lived,

Your genuine love - your gift...

Beautiful, Sweet, Precious Mommy,

You are So Dearly Missed

And Beloved by us All!

Mommy loved to laugh and smile, and truly gave her heart, ensuring everyone knew just how precious and loved they are, with a sincere smile, a warm hug, a kind word, a funny joke. Mommy brought out the best in all of us, spreading sunshine and grace. Therefore, in lieu of flowers or koden, please kindly share your many photos, videos, and memories of Mommy on her Tribute Page, as this would make us all, and dear Mommy, so very, very happy! Please fill the page with your stories and photos of you with Mommy especially, as we'd love to see your smiles! Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for all of your love, support, many kindnesses and prayers during this difficult time. Your love has truly made a difference beyond words, and means the world to all of us! :) Thank You All So Very, Very Much! With All Our Love, Gratitude, and Big Bear Hugs! The Ogata Ohana

My Aunty Alice was such a kind and loving person. I treasure the fond memories I have of her. During my visits to Oahu where I stayed with my uncle and Aunty, I remember her smiling face and gentle spirit always welcoming me in their home. Though my visits were usually short, we shared good times together preparing breakfast each morning and talking stories covering all kinds of topics many times with amusement and laughter. It was a joy being in their company and feeling the warmth of being in their home. My earliest memories of Aunty Alice was the time she was planning her wedding. I was asked to be her junior bridesmaid at the age of 16. I was so happy and excited for both my uncle and Alice that they were going to be married. Their wedding was truly special because my uncle had found someone he deeply loved and cared for...and I could see why by her kind nature and caring heart. The last time I saw my Aunty Alice was in December of 2018. She was on the inter-island cruise and when the ship made its stop in Hilo, we took her to see the lava flow at Leilani Estates at her request. She was so amazed at how huge the lava was and how it flowed for miles and miles. We later dined at Star Restaurant for lunch, a Chinese buffet restaurant in Hilo, where my sister folks and my cousin Amy who was visiting at the time joined us for lunch. Aunty Alice was happy to have all of us together sharing a meal and catching up on things. Lastly, it was about 8 years ago when Aunty Alice shared with me that she became a believer in Christ. I was overjoyed to hear the good news! I assured her that it was one of the best decisions she made in her life and will never regret it. We will miss you Aunty Alice! Thank you for everything! We find comfort and peace in knowing that you will be spending eternity with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." John 3:16

Our Auntie Alice was one of the most loving, caring, thoughtful, generous person we had ever known. Unfortunately, although I hardly had kept in touch, especially when we had moved to the Big Island. She would show her love to our family during the holiday season. She would send gifts to the grandchildren and to us. She never forgot. That's the kind of Auntie she was. I would call her to thank her and we would talk stories for awhile. Unfortunately, this past holiday season, I could not get in touch with her. I feel so sad not knowing this would have been her last Christmas. I wish I had kept calling. Also, when my daughter Janelle was in Las Vegas attending UNLV, she would surprise her with care packages just out of the blues, she would send them. We never can forget. That's the kind of auntie she was. Most of all, when my daughter Janelle had graduated from manoa, auntie Alice came all the way from wahiawa to manoa with Kelly to celebrate my daughter's graduation with us. We were so happy to see Auntie Alice and Kelly. She wanted to go to lunch, but we couldn't because my granddaughter was sick with a fever. I wished we all could've have lunch together that day. Lastly, the last time I had seen Auntie Alice was in December 2018 when she had taken an inter-island cruise when the ship made a stop in Hilo, we were glad that we got to see her. We had a good Chinese buffet lunch and we all talked stories, laughing, and just spending time with her. Now, when I go to that restaurant, I feel sad thinking that was the last time I saw her. We will always cherish all the memories and the things Auntie Alice had done for us. We will miss you dearly. Auntie. Our beloved Auntie, grand-auntie, great grand Auntie. You will be dearly missed. We will always love you. The Miguel Ohana. Francine, Marty, Jenna, Janelle, Kimball, Grandchildren Ariana and Kingston

To Our Beloved Mommy / Baba O., We see you in the fluffy clouds merrily dotting the clear, blue sky, We hear you in the chirping birds cheerfully flitting by... We feel your tender, warm embrace, as gentle sea breezes envelope and kiss our face, Quietly whispering, "I am with you in spirit, you are never alone; I am with you in spirit - your heart is my home." There are no words that can quite express our deepest love for you - Or words to say how much we are so deeply indebted to you... We miss you in the morning, We miss you in the night. We miss you everyday, Our shining, guiding light. Forever thankful to be a part of you, Forever in our hearts, you'll remain, Our beautiful precious angel, Mommy, We Thank God for you again and again. Our Light, Our Love, Our Everything, We Can't Wait To See You Again! All Our Love, All Our Lives, Always and Forever, Your Eternally Grateful Family, Daddy, Kelly, Lori, Mark, Bryan, Krislyn, Katie
