I was so very sorry to hear this news.Â Fuj was my teacher in '79 and '80...I also remember her as a tough but amazing teacher.Â She made such an impression on me and so many others.Â She was our teacher but also a friend...loved all of our service projects and outings with the National Honor Society.Â Many of us are just learning about it and you'd be happy to know that so many of her students are right now remembering her fondly on Facebook!Â She was one of my all-time favorite teachers.Â Prayers, Blessings, and Aloha to her family...

Dear Mr. Fujii,My deepest condolences to you and your family.Â Mrs. Fujii was my AP teacher at PCHS in '81-83, and my NHS advisor.Â She was the toughest but the best teacher.Â She was passionate about teaching and demanded our best.Â I remember her telling us about growing up as an only child who had a $300 a month allowance.Â This was a fortune back then (and still is!) and made quite an impression.Â She had a dog named Aristotle I believe, which was so fitting, as she would grill us with questions!Â I recalled her as the teacher who really prepared me for college. She was tough because she cared. Thank you, Mrs. Fujii! ðŸ’—
