Junior was like an older brother to me. He was someone that I could talk to and knew that I knew he would be praying for me. He was a gentle giant of a man, not only in stature but in heart. His heart was big enough to love all the people he met. I will miss his phone calls to me and his love for me and all he met. He never saw a stranger. I will miss him but am comforted knowing he is with the Lord and has received his reward.
