Helen Tom Obituary

Helen L. Tom, 71 of Mililani passed away on December 7, 2019. She went home to Jesus with a faithful and peaceful heart. Helen was a woman of faith and shared her love of God with others. She was the ultimate believer in family and created a bond with those lucky enough to love her. Helen was always full of laughter, both hearty and loud, and light and the true definition of unconditional love. She gave the best hugs, had the most generous and caring heart and had a gift of connecting to every person she met. Helen is deeply missed but has forever left an imprint on our hearts.

She is survived by her husband-Keon, children-Christopher (wife-Kerianne) and Melissa-Kim, siblings-Shiu Hing, Betty, Nancy and Jerry and her grandchildren-Xander, Ezekiel and Mason.

Celebration of Life will be held on Friday, January 17, 2020 at Mililani Memorial Park and Mortuary's Mauka Chapel. Visitation for family from 4:30-5:30 p.m. and for the public from 5:30-6:30 p.m., followed by services at 6:30 p.m. Helen would want us to celebrate her life, in laughter and in love.

Attire-Bright colors, aloha attire or anything shiny as Mom loved the bling!

The Tom family kindly requests no flowers, however, monetary gifts will be received and donated in Helen's honor.
