Geraldine Wong "Gerry" posted:

Teresa was an amazing lady who not only cared deeply about people but she also got involved in the causes she took on. During my relationship with her she was involved in political causes because they impacted the lives of many. As they say, she not only "talked the talk, she took it to the end of the line." This was a characteristic of hers that fostered trust. Watching her and talking with her was very inspiring for me at this time in my life. I was blessed to have known her!
