Mr. Los Banos was a wonderful educator and advocate for the brave Filipino soldiers who fought in WWII. Always active and working hard for the community as a whole, while taking time to connect and talk to individuals. He was appreciated and will be missed by many. Rest in Peace and God Speed your Journey Home. Connie Clements Hayes

I pay triute to my life long friend, teacher, coach & mentor, Domingo Los Banos, jr. From my younger years as a High School Football player and Track runner, I remember Coach Los Banos was there with his encouragement that helped to shape my future life as a Government Official, Business and Community Leader. I say Mahalo, Salamat Po for all he has done in his lifetime. He will long be remembered.
