C had Jumawan Obituary

Chad was born June 29, 1972. Went to Waialua elementary. Then his mom and 3 siblings moved to Wahiawa where here attended Wahiawa middle school. Then went to graduate at Leilehua High school class of 1990. He lived the summer with his sister Verna and her family in MillCamp. Chad then went to UTI in Arizona where he got his degree. He remained Arizona where his friends became family. Family wasn't far in Arizona. His sister Vanessa and her family became his second home. His nephew and nieces from his only brother lived in Arizona as well. Chad often felt homesick so visiting back home in Hawaii was a must. He did come back to live with his father Morris and bother Cj in cement city for a few years. Then went back to Arizona. Then in 2014 Chad decided to stay in Hawaii for good to spend more time with family. He lived with his nephew Joshua and his family in Whitmore. There he became a babysitter, a coach, a landscaper, a therapist, a discipliner, and a great Uncle. He took his last breath on February 2, 2019 with love of his sisters right next to him.

He is survived by his father Maurice Jumawan; brother Christopher M. Jumawan; sisters Verna M. Repollo (Roel), Vanessa M. Winston (Tristan); numerous nieces and nephews. He is preceded by his mother Loretta A. Rosaldo.

Celebration of Life will be held 11:00 am Saturday April 6, 2019 at Kaiaka Bay Beach Park.
