My mom was one of the most caring and understanding people I've ever known. She had such a soft heart and always made time for the people she loved. She was the kind of person you could talk to about anything, and she would just listen without judgment. She loved her grandbabies more than anything. Being with them, loving on them, and just spending that time together meant the world to her. Those are the moments I'll always picture when I think of her. She also loved talking story on the phone those long conversations full of laughs, catching up, and just being there for each other. That was her... always making sure everyone felt heard, loved, and not alone. I miss her every day, but I hold onto the love she gave so freely. I'm so grateful she was my mom. I love you forever. Forever your munchkin ❤️

Please accept my condolences. God promises that one day he will "swallow up death forever" (Isaiah 25:8,9) and "No resident will say "I am sick" (Isaiah 33:24) We also have the opportunity to be reunited with our loved ones again by means of the resurrection promised at Isaiah 26:19; Hosea 13:14, John 5:18,29 and Revelation 20:13. May these words bring you comfort, strength and encouragement.
