Mon, 03 Dec 2018 Today is Grandma Diane's funeral in Hawaii. I'm in North Carolina. My thoughts turn to her in remembrance. A great way to honor parents/ancestors is to live a good, clean life while choosing to be happy and cheerful, and record their place in family history. I'll work to do my part. Faithfully, Eddie VW

My sweet, brave, loving, hard working & beautiful little woman is my sister in God's eyes & my mother in law in this time on earth. I was so afraid I would never measure up to her expectations as her only daughter in law but she let me know that as long as her only son was happy she was too. I knew & still know that she loves me. I loved her that day & more now. I miss knowing she is here but so happy her journey here is over. See you soon Mommie.

To my Hawaii relatives, Thank you for being so loving to each other, and me, even though we're far apart. It was wonderful to spend time with you during my 2 week visit to Oahu in 2015, and to see Grandma Diane. Her name and dates will be recorded in our genealogy to always be remembered. With eternal love,
Eddie Van Winkle (Grandson)
