It is still hard to believe that the man who was always there to take care of us (during times like these) is now the one that we will be celebrating...No matter how hard those times were, he could always make you smile. While I was away from Hawaii, all of the stories that I heard about you, from my Mom, always made her smile. There was no one like Uncle Kippy. When we came home to Nanakuli, you remembered me from when I was 3 years old (I was then 15)!!! And then you flashed that smile at the look of surprise on my face, gave me a hug, and welcomed me home. No wonder my Mom always talked with love about you.. Thank you, Uncle Kippy. For everything.
